ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

This house is an example of a simple brick two story structure popular for smaller residences after the First World War. Included in the design is the all important veranda, one over one glazing, and the low hipped dormer on the center axis. The brick is laid in seven course common bond.

HISTORICAL DESCRIPTION

The lot was purchased by L. W. Wood in February, 1925, from J. B. Wood. The existing structure was begun at that time for the 1926 tax records show that a building was added to the lot by that time. Deed references: 34-214, 50-185, 126-17.
