ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

This house is another good example of the Colonial Revival residential style. It is very similar to the slightly earlier Gilmer-Watts House across the street at 627 Park Street. The simple three bay, brick structure is nicely articulated with a handsome fanlight doorway and triangular pedimented hood and Greek Key moulding in the cornice. The house is a central hall plan with fine interior woodwork. It was constructed by the Charlottesville Lumber Company when the prominent contractor R. E. Lee, Sr., was with the company.

HISTORICAL DESCRIPTION

This lot was originally part of the property surrounding the Lyons estate. John A. Gilmer subdivided the acreage and sold this lot to Mrs. George Walker in 1927 (DB 58-398). The house was constructed in 1928 for Mrs. Walker by the Charlottesville Lumber Company. The property saw many owners in the thirties and forties. The present owner, Mr. Maxwell Fogleman has made it his home since 1949 when he purchased the property from R. C. Jennings (DB 146-243
