Mr. Day stated that "Albemarle Book" by John Moore needs to be updated. It was suggested that Coy Barefoot would be a good person to do the update.

Mr. Beliles inquired about the status of the Jamestown celebration for their 400th anniversary. Mr. Day stated that he had attended two meetings and Monticello will prepare some printed materials. There was a discussion of involving Monacan Indians in the celebration. Mr. Day stated that the state has no funding for the project.

Ms. Smyer-Kelley stated that on April 30, 2004 at the Monticello Event & Conference Center, there will be a speech by a "York" impersonator and members of the Task Force should attend this event.

Mr. Huja told the Task Force that the Lewis & Clark festival is May 1st, 10 – 4.

Mr. Day informed the Task Force the status of "peace garden". It will be located in the area behind the McIntire building. Allie Attook is leading this project. A local committee has been formed for the project. They have raised $10,000 – $12,000 thus far. They will be providing new landscaping for the site. Mr. Day also indicated that it may require a wrought iron fence for safety reasons, he also stated that Linda Peacock suggested that maybe this should be designated as a city park.

The next meeting will be May 12th at 3:30 p.m. with no further business the meeting adjourned at 4:45
