Appointment of Election Officials

Since Assistant Registrar Melissa Morton was out of town for training, Deputy Registrar Katie Mauller presented a packet of applications, assembled by Ms. Morton and elections Project Assistant Joyce McKenney, from 82 current election officials seeking reappointment for another term. The terms of 102 of our current election official are expiring and some additional applications for reappointment are expected. In addition a number others have time remaining on their current appointments. The 82 were reviewed by the Board and, on a motion by the Chair, seconded by the Vice-chair, were approved unanimously for appointment to a three-year term. A list of the reappointed election officials is attached to these minutes.

Ms. Mauller also presented an application from Mr. Andrew Morgan seeking appointment as a new officer of election. The Chair moved that he be appointed to a three-year term. The Vice-chair seconded and the motion was approved unanimously.
