“ ... at the Central Hotel...”

NOTICE.

Two or three Months past I requested settlements with all those with whom I had any dealings ; I have been promptly waited on by my creditors. I now request that some attention should be paid to this notice, by my debtors ; as I have fixed until the first day of February next, to close my former accounts, those who fail to call before that date, shall be (however disagreeable) attended to in a particular manner.

Oats, Corn, Hay, Pork, Beef, or any Thing else in my line, will be received in payment at the Market price.

The Negroes of
THOMPSON'S Estate will be hired at the Central Hotel on the 1st day of January next, to the highest bidder for six, and probably for twelve months ; bonds required as heretofore ; those who are indebted to that estate will do well to discharge the same by payment, as I must come to a settlement.

Negroes for Sale.
I shall offer at public auction, on Albemarle February court day, before the door of the Swan Tavern, in Charlottesville, 18 or 20 likely negroes.— So far as that relation subsists they will be sold in families. One fourth of the purchase money will be required in hand; on the balance a credit of twelve months will be given, the purchaser giving bond with approved security.

TRUST SALE OF NEGROES.
Will be sold to the highest bidder for ready money, before the front door of the Courthouse in Charlottesville, on monday the third day of September next, being Albemarle court day, under a deed of trust executed to the subscriber, to secure debts due to James D. Dillard guardian of Edward C. and Lucy M. Moore, so many of the slaves conveyed in said trust as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of said debts and the costs and charges of sale.
The title to the slaves is believed to be indisputable, but the subscriber will of course convey to the purchaser such title only, as is vested in him by the deed aforesaid.

Commissioner's Sale.

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for Albemarle County, pronounced on the 23d of October 1846, in the case of Bonnycastle's Adm'r. vs. Bonnycastle, &c., the undersigned will on the 4th day of January next, that being Court day, offer for sale in Charlottesville, in front of the Court House at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, among whom is a young woman with four very likely children, three of them being boys, the eldest about nine or ten years old. The woman herself is a good Sempstress.

Seven Slaves,

There will be required in cash a sufficient sum to defray the expenses of sale and the costs of the suit (which are very trivial,) for the balance a credit of six months will be allowed; the purchasers executing bonds with good security, before the delivery of the property.

THE Proprietor of this well known Establishment, having recently thoroughly repaired and newly furnished it, and having also leased the JEFFERSON HOUSE, a large and commodious Brick Building adjoining the EAGLE, begs leave to say to his friends and the Public generally, that he is prepared to accommodate them, in the very best manner, at moderate prices.

His TABLE is furnished with every variety which the season affords.

His BAR is always supplied with LIQUORS of the best quality, for those who like “something warm,” while those who prefer it will find the “pure element” in abundance, fresh from the “crystal fountain.”

His STABLE is well provided with good provender, and will be at all times under the management of careful and attentive Ostlers.

But he had rather be tried by his acts, than his professions. He therefore respectfully solicits, that the Public will give him a call, and test for themselves the advantages of the EAGLE.

N. B.—The Stages will punctually call at the Eagle for passengers, who may require it. Persons travelling by the stages, who prefer to stop at this House, will be promptly attended to, at all hours.
